Remarks

Looking for a FOREVER home? Look no further! This home feels like country while minutes from downtown, located on a dead end cul de sac with a total of eight other homes. Not only a secluded location, but 1.0+ acres will make you feel you have your own ranchette. Oh, and by the way, Horses are allowed! Inside the home is full of flexibility. You have 3 bedrooms and 2 baths on one side of the home, with a pocket door for privacy when company is in the house or Babies are sleeping. The open eat-in kitchen allows you to be a part of everything while cooking for the family or dinner party. Separate living room and dining room allows for those formal events with room to spare. The primary bedroom / retreat is located away from the rest of the house allowing maximum privacy with sliding doors that lead out to the relaxing pool. The ensuite in the primary is not only Spa like but has an absolutely awesome atrium that allows in sunlight and nature. All of that and still another half bath for guests and a home Office as well! But wait! There is more! For outside entertaining or simply enjoying family you have an expansive lanai overlooking a beautiful screened in pool! Sit on the lanai and enjoy all a cup of coffee or cocktail while soaking up peace and tranquility. If it is family you want to inspire, there is room to play
